

Living Graciously

It is much easier to respond graciously to those who are kind or helpful to us. To live graciously requires us to have the capacity to also respond graciously to those who are unkind and even hurtful. To do this, we need to be able to step back and set ourselves the value of always respecting the dignity of the other. To have the strength of character to respond graciously also preserves our own dignity.

Understanding that before God we are all simultaneously special parts of His creation and at the same time falling short of who He would have us be, enables us to look at others and different situations with gentler eyes and more gracious hearts. By living graciously, we stay out of the jungle and encourage others to do the same.

Principal's Log

Well done to the Year 3-7 swimming team who competed at the Independent Schools District Competition on Wednesday. Mr Hooper was delighted with the spirit of the team and there were some strong performances with the team coming fourth overall. Thank you to staff and parents for their support and to Mr Hooper for his organisation of the team. Well done to our swimmers and we look forward to the Inter-Lutheran primary carnival.

Families will have seen increased activity around the construction of Stage 1 of the Year 3 to 5 block over the past week. We were successful in negotiating with the Sunshine Coast Regional Council to have an access that minimised impact on the college's sporting facilities and enhanced safety for our community and the wider community. It is important that during weekend and after school events that care is taken around the builder's site and safety restrictions are adhered to, including staying out of the building area. Equipment or belongings that find their way into the site should be retrieved by builders on the next working day. We appreciate the support of the Sunshine Coast Regional Council and Mr Healy's work in successfully negotiating this access route.

The energy and commitment of those attending the Friends of Pacific meeting on Tuesday night was heartening. We look forward to a great year of building community together and I would encourage all families to provide strong support to the Friends of Pacific team. Thank you to our Friends of Pacific Executive and to all who attended on Tuesday night.

The Year 8 camp held last week provided a good opportunity for students to grow individually and also as a group. Activities had young people encouraging each other to overcome challenges and laughing together as they got to know themselves and each other better. Thank you to Dr Peter McMahon, Mrs Jacqui Layfield, Mrs Melissa Evans, Mrs Rae Hall, Mr Brendan Delaney, Mrs Rowena Marshall and past students Emma Middleton and Madi Bell for their leadership.

Parents wishing to take part in the college's strategic planning day on Saturday, 8th March are still able to indicate their desire to attend by emailing admin@pacifluth.qld.edu.au.

Lutheran secondary schools are reviewing the structure of Lutheran secondary competitions this year. As a result, there will be no secondary Inter-Lutheran swimming, athletics or cross country carnivals this year. The Inter-Lutheran primary competitions will continue as they always have.

May God equip us to live graciously.

Made by God

Imagine we were born with a stamped logo: "Made by God".

Famous Christian writer, Cardinal John Henry Newmann, once wrote:

"God has created me to do Him some definite service. He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission . . . I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons . . . He has not created me for naught. I shall do good; I shall do His work. Therefore, I will trust Him, whatever I am."

Really our own face is God's "identity stamp". Each of us is wonderfully made by the handiwork of almighty God. Each of us has been gifted with unique features and an array of personality traits directly from our loving Heavenly Father.

What I appreciate most of the comment above from Cardinal Newmann is his connection between the creative action of God and my purpose in life. God has set me into this world at this time in this country so that I could be part to His great work of justice, mercy and peace.

Coming to school at Pacific is about more than just learning facts and skills for a career. It involves asking God the question, "What is the mission you have given to me - for the sake of the world?"

Year 12 Notice

In preparation for the Year 12 End of Year events, we would like to begin gathering approximately five photos of each Year 12 student, which highlight moments during your schooling at Pacific.

It would be great if you could choose different ages, activities, academic achievements, sports, cultural and/or extra-curricular activities, so that we have a range of photos to select from. Please note, these photos will be used as part of the End of Year events for Year 12 students.

You are welcome to email Mrs Bevis at lbevis@pacifluth.qld.edu.au, or bring the photos on a storage device (clearly named) to the Middle/Senior Administration office.

If you are emailing your photos, please put your name in the subject line.

We would also like some group photos (if possible). If you have any good group photos from different events, could you also include these (names and dates would help).

Thank you for your assistance.

2014 Sunshine Coast Christian Colleges Ecumenical Service

On Tuesday, 18th February the College Student Leadership Team attended the Annual Ecumenical Service. The theme of the service was 'Servant Leadership'. The Bible reading for the service focused on Matthew chapter 5, verses 1 to 16.

Nina Kerridge and Kieran Bergs shared the following words at the service:

Faith and Hopes

At Pacific Lutheran College, we are a relatively small school with massive faith and hopes. We have faith in our academic curriculums, our sporting teams and our cultural programs. Our hopes are to extend our potential in these areas as far as possible and to create a learning enriched environment in which all members of our community can achieve this. This year we will strive to reach out to the community and offer our service in any ways that we can.

Faith and Challenges

The students of Pacific are provided with education that is encouraged in a wide variety of activities such as academic, cultural, sporting and outdoor education. Balancing activities and producing the best results can be challenging, and we call on God each day to watch over us as we take on the task of striving to achieve. Having faith in the Lord to guide us in all our endeavours helps us to be strong and supportive of one another through these challenges. This faith builds the foundations for our connected community.

A Message from the College Student Leadership Team

Every person has an inborn worth and can contribute to the human community. We all can treat one another with dignity and respect and help one another discover and develop our unique gifts. - Kate Knapp

The importance of this quote is how it aims to connect to every person to inform them that they are important and have value. Sometimes in life we feel as though we are worthless and feel so small compared to the huge world that is out there, but we are not small at all. We are more important than we could and will ever know but the only way we stand a chance of proving our own self-worth is by helping others to find theirs. As you go into this week and the rest of the year, just take the time to think how valuable you are and how much you are loved by the people here today. Do not let negative thoughts or statements made by others, impact on the way you view yourself and the way you act. Always be yourself because you are the best, and only person who can do so.

Senior College Parent Information Evenings

I would like to thank Year 12 parents and students who attended the parent information evening on Tuesday, 18th February. It is pleasing to have parents continued support and connectedness during their students journey through senior school. In the hour presentation, there was key information presented for parents and students alike.

If you were not able to attend this evening or if there is anything you need clarified, please contact the college.

Parents and students in Year 10 are asked to attend the parent information evening on Tuesday, 25th February starting at 7.00pm. This will be an informative night as students begin their transition into senior schooling.

A quote to ponder on:

Never throw in the towel. Use it to wipe off the sweat and then keep going.

Should Your Child Watch the News?

Research conducted in the US found 53.8% of stories on TV news broadcasts were about crime, disaster and war.

Rita Princi, psychologist and Australian Council of Children and the Media (ACCM), says when kids under 12 see constant information like this they can come to view the world as a mean and scary place and enjoyable activities, such as going to the movies, as dangerous.

"Older children know that 'the news' is supposed to be the real world and are more likely to identify with the persons and situations in the news. For example, they may fear being kidnapped or that their family might suffer a fate seen in the news", the ACCM says.

This is backed by a recent study which found that when violent content viewed by children was described as "news" it produced much higher fear reactions than when it was called "fiction".

"Children look to their parents for assurance that they are safe - and they are very astute at picking up on their parents' anxiety", Princi says.

Some research has also shown that some children and adolescents imitate what they see in the news, which can result in "copy cat" events.

Meanwhile chronic and persistent exposure to violence can lead to fear, desensitisation and even an increase in violence.

Age Appropriateness

The ACCM advises that kids should avoid the news, but that can be difficult. Here are some tips for dealing with the news through the ages:

- Two to Six Years

At these ages, kids have a limited ability to discern the fantasy of fiction from the reality of news, so there is no value in them watching scary items about murders, natural disasters and wars.

- Seven to 12 Years

This is the most psychologically vulnerable age when it comes to the impact of frightening real-life news because they know the difference between fantasy and reality but lack perspective.

"At this age, it is very important you watch the news with them so you can discuss what they see, or turn the TV off if they are disturbed", Princi says.

- Teens

They are more media savvy and a parent cannot be there to monitor everything. They are also more likely to be discussing events in the classroom and among friends. However, Princi says it is important parents ensure they know what their child has seen and how they are interpreting the information.

"There is a parenting school of thought which states we should be constantly having open and frank discussions with our kids, and in some cases this is true", Princi says. "But parents of younger kids need to ask themselves, 'what is the benefit to them if they find out about a horrific random event on the other side of the world?'"

Mrs Sue Zweck, Head of Teaching and Learning K-5

From the Head of Staff and Students P-5

Being a successful parent is one of the great challenges we all face when we accept the responsibility of having children. Research continually reveals evidence of positive parenting found in children with higher levels of Social and Emotional Well-Being and those children with high levels of SEWB perform better academically, socially and emotionally.

The actions of parents that contribute most to their overall children's SEWB (as identified by children) include:

- I have a parent who talks with me about my feelings and coping with stress.
- I have a parent who spends time talking with me about how to make friends and solve problems.
- I have a "say" at home about the way we do things.
- There are interesting things to do at home with family.
- I have a parent who asks questions about what I am learning.
- I have a parent who talks with me about being respectful, honest, caring, responsible and a good citizen.
- I have a parent who discusses with me what is acceptable behaviour and what happens if I behave badly.
- I have a parent who shows he/she is interested in what I am studying.
- I have a parent who makes time for me and listens.
- There are things at home I have responsibility for.
- At home, I feel accepted for who I am.
- I have a parent who discusses the importance of doing my best in schoolwork.
- I have a parent who praises me when I have done a good job in schoolwork or acted responsibly.

Fundamental to all of the above is communication. Over the next few weeks, I would like to share with you some information which may make the task a little clearer and possibly easier. Please find below the first three ideas in promoting child / parent communication.

Good communication leads: Poor communication leads:

- | | |
|--------------------------|---------------------------------|
| • to warm relationships, | to kids who "turn off" adults, |
| • to cooperation, and | to conflicts and bickering, and |
| • to feelings of worth. | to feelings of worthlessness. |

- When talking with children Use Door Openers
 "I see." "Oh." "Mm hmmm." "How about that!" "Really?"
 "Tell me more." "Can you say that again?" "I want to be sure I understand you." "That's interesting!"
- Listen attentively* - Get rid of distractions and pay attention to what the child is saying. At times, adults may need to stop whatever they are doing and listen to the child. It is difficult to run the vacuum cleaner, cook dinner or read the paper and at the same time, pay close attention to what the child is saying.
- Use more do's than don'ts*

Example of Don'ts:

- Don't drag your coat on the ground.
- Don't squeeze the kitten.
- Don't slam the door.
- Don't draw on the table.

Example of Do's:

- Hold your coat so it doesn't drag.
- Carry the kitten gently.
- Close the door softly please.
- You can colour on this page.

Three Good Things Exercise

Positive psychology exercises can increase a person's level of well-being. Dr Martin Seligman, the leader of the Positive Psychology movement, has created various positive psychology exercises to help people be happier. The "Three Good Things" is the most effective exercise and can increase one's level of happiness by up to 25%. For more information please have a look at the link below.

Senior Drama Production 2014

The Resistable Rise of Arturo Ui by Bertolt Brecht

38 talented and enthusiastic cast and crew members and several staff have begun the process of rehearsing this year's senior drama play; a savage, witty and visually exciting parable of the events which lead to the rise of Hitler, but cleverly re-contextualised by Brecht in terms of a small-time Chicago gangster's (Ui) take-over of the city's greengrocery trade.

The play involves a wide range of characters, movement, parody and vaudeville and it will deliver a strong message about the way in which we live and act in the world of the 21st Century.

The play will be suitable for Middle College and upwards, so stay tuned for more information and keep your eye out for our posters around the school.

Put Friday, 16th May and Saturday, 17th May into your calendars as a date claimer for the show.

We would love to see you at The Events Centre!

Science Proves Reading Makes Us Better Human Beings

Recently the journal Science published the results of a study that showed that reading improves us not just intellectually, but morally as well. The study showed that reading develops our social skills and makes us more understanding and empathetic towards others. Regular reading develops people's ability to see things from another's point of view and makes us less self-absorbed. Encourage your child to read regularly.

Mooloolaba Teams Rise Again

We are excited to announce that we have registered four teams again this year to compete, or possibly just complete, the Mooloolaba Triathlon to be held on Sunday, 16th March 2014.

We have some wonderful competitors this year from across the school body, which include teachers, students, support staff and parents. It is a wonderful opportunity for us to embrace activities that we enjoy pursuing, while promoting the school and our healthy ethos.

This year we will be proudly competing with our new "Be In It" motto and we are hoping to have a Pacific tent at the venue on the day, so that if anyone would like to come and support us, we would LOVE it.

Sunday morning saw us do our first 'run through', which left most of us short of breathe but thrilled to have done it.

For the next few weeks leading up to the event, we will feature each team and identify the individuals who will be completing each leg of the race on the day.

Due to an injury, we are also keen to enlist another swimmer! So if you are not afraid of sharks or a swift biff to the back of your head while swimming in a pack, please contact Lu Pollard, Year 3 teacher and Moo Team Manager 2014.

Friends of Pacific

The first meeting for the year on Tuesday, 18th February was well attended by both regular and new Friends of Pacific members.

The atmosphere of support and respect for one another in the college community continues to be a very positive driving factor in our meetings.

It is totally understood that not everyone can attend meetings on a regular basis so we welcome attendance at any point in time. Contact can also be made via email to fop@paciluth.qld.edu.au.

The agenda was very full and many items were discussed, some of which being the Golf Day, Ocean Festival and the role of the FOP committee.

One of the primary aims for this year is to minimise the workload for volunteers so we are being guided by the saying "Many Hands Make Light Work".

There were many who very generously put up their hands to indicate they would look after a certain area which will make for a very productive year.

FOP are looking forward to 2014 and we thank in advance the Pacific community for the support given.

SECONDARY SPORT

Wednesday Sport Competition

The after school Wednesday SCISSA sport competition has already begun with Pacific being involved in volleyball and soccer at the moment.

Congratulations to the 7/8 girls and 11/12 boys volleyball teams who recorded fantastic wins last week. The 11/12 boys team are playing at a high level and are really looking strong in the competition, but have a few tough games over the next few weeks. The other teams lost in close matches with the 9/10 boys, 9/10 girls and 11/12 girls going down narrowly. All the best for the rest of the competition.

Well done to both our 11/12 soccer teams. The girls recorded a toughly fought out draw against Immanuel Lutheran College, whereas the 11/12 boys had a big win (9-1) against Matthew Flinders Anglican College. All teams are looking great in their new uniforms and it will be exciting to see where they are positioned when the finals come around.

A big thank you to all students who are involved in these teams. It is great to see you representing the school in sport.

Mr Mark Hauser, Head of Sport

Monday Night Netball

Netball commenced Monday evening for all five Pacific teams entered into the Sunshine Coast Secondary Schools Netball Competition, held each year at Fisherman's Road. This week, all teams played two grading games, against other independent and State schools on the Coast, with each team celebrating at least one win. This puts all teams in a good position to be placed in competitive divisions.

Mrs Toni Fisher's Year 8 team wins Team of the Week, revelling in two convincing wins against Sunshine Coast Grammar School and Siena Catholic College. Player of the Week has been awarded to Caley Williams, Year 8, for her work in the mid court and encouragement to other team mates. Well done, Caley.

The Open girls, coached by Mrs Drogemuller, enjoyed playing in Open years and heavily contested Matthew Flinders Anglican College's Open team. They played with a determined and focused attitude, which they put down to their proudly worn new dress uniform.

Training for all five teams occurs during Friday afternoon sport, with the Open team training till 4.00pm each week. Draw will be posted on Schoology and all players are encouraged to print a copy for home.

The competition officially commences with Round 1 next week and goes through to next term, Round 10, Week 4, 19th May.

Mrs Leigh Drogemuller, Netball Coordinator

Pacific Soccer Update

Registrations for 2014 Season

With conclusion of our main sign-on events, we have only two weeks left before the start of the 2014 season, and 160 registered players who are looking forward to their first game on Saturday, 8th March. The final team lists will be displayed outside the Prep classrooms on Friday afternoon.

The task of finalising the team lists has been challenging and time-consuming, and a big thank you must go to Mrs Jenny Lee, Mrs Lala Burnes and Mrs Kelly Abraham who have spent many hours on this task. Whilst every effort has been made to accommodate specific requests for particular teams, not all have been possible due the number of players within each age group.

Places Available With Pacific Soccer

Want to be part of Pacific Soccer this season and experience the fun and excitement of playing in a team each week? We are currently looking for boys or girls in the following teams:

- 1 player for 2 x U6 teams (born 2009)

- 2 players for U9 team (born 2005 or 2006)
- 2 players for U10 team (born 2004)
- 2 players for U15 Seahorses (girls born 1999)

Team Coaches and Managers

Pacific Soccer would like to thank our many coaches and managers, who have already offered some of their valuable time this season to help their team. Your dedication is greatly appreciated by the players, their families and the club, because it allows the players to play their game, to learn new skills, and to enjoy playing each weekend.

 A few teams still require either a coach or a manager. If you would like to assist your team this year, coaching or managing is a great way to become actively involved, and your participation will be especially appreciated by the players. Free coaching clinics are available which provide additional guidance with training exercises and drills, to allow our teams to continue to develop throughout the season.

Sponsorship Opportunities

Pacific Soccer has always appreciated the generous support of our family businesses who sponsor the match jerseys which are worn by our teams. The match jerseys are worn every week during our season and also appear in our team photos and school newsletter, and therefore continue the exposure which any jersey sponsorship will provide. The jerseys are kept for around five seasons and therefore provide ongoing promotion for any business for many years.

At this stage, we have several sets of new match jerseys which will be worn by our teams this season and are available for immediate sponsorship. Only one business will be advertised on each set, so if you would like to promote your business and sponsor a team, please contact Mrs Lala Burnes immediately.

Working Bee 2014

Remember that the annual Pacific Soccer Working Bee will be held on Saturday, 22nd February commencing at 8.00am, and concluding around 12.00 noon. In particular, we are seeking assistance from anyone who can assist with the following tasks:

- Assembly of new aluminum goal posts, and fixing of wheels.
- Fitting of external locks to sliding door of the equipment shed.
- Installation of internal sink in the bench of the canteen.
- Erection of racks and shelves in the canteen.
- Organisation of equipment for teams and the canteen.

We have always had a great response to our previous working bees, so please come along and help out for the morning, and share in a sausage sizzle when we are done.
