

Musings On Time

Time does not change us.
It just unfolds us
Max Frisch

Every country on earth has some kind of cliché attached that portends to describe the personality characteristics of its people.

Germans are hardworking, the French are romantic, the Swiss are efficient. Aussies are happy-go-lucky, Chinese are driven. Italians love food. Balinese are laid back. You get the idea . . . the labels go all round the world. There is a bit of truth to all of them and a lot of error as well. But whatever the balance of truth in the markets, they stick and they do say something about the qualities a people value about the nature of their culture and about their priorities. There is an old doggerel that goes

*I have only just a minute. Only 60 seconds in it.
Given to me, didn't choose it. Mustn't waste it, can't refuse it.
But I must suffer if I lose it.*

I am not sure how apt the happy go lucky Aussie moniker is any more. We are hard-working, working longer hours than most countries. We are pragmatic, productive people and time is so often our God. It shows in our language. We spend time, invest time, need time and lose time, save time, waste time, find time and buy time, we gain time and want time. And in the end, time, not life, threatens to absorb us!

Time, we assume, is for doing something, for producing something, for achieving goals. And in our commitment to pragmatism and effectiveness, we far too often fail to realise that life is about becoming, becoming a person of merit and worth who serves. It might be useful to take a moment each day to give more serious consideration to what we are becoming rather than what we are doing as time goes by. What we are doing does not define us; who we are and whose we are does.

Principal's Log

The Boat Shed Restaurant on Tuesday night was filled with the sounds and smells of people enjoying a night of good food, good company and good service. The Year 12 Hospitality students prepared, cooked alongside professional chefs and then served three courses to over 65 appreciative diners. All students are to be congratulated on their very professional and warm presentation and the way they engaged in working to a very high standard in this quality restaurant. Thank you to all staff, parents and their families for their attendance.

Congratulations to Mrs Colleen Devitt for organising such a rich learning experience for our students, to Mrs Rhana Holt for her support and to the students for providing us with a thoroughly enjoyable night.

A group of our Year 6 students joined with other gifted and talented students from independent schools of the Sunshine Coast to participate in Camp Buranga. This is a wonderful opportunity for students with a passion and talent in an area to join with other like-minded students from a variety of schools to extend their understandings. Our students really enjoyed the experience and we thank Mr Joshua Danzey and Mrs Rae Hall for their leadership.

Congratulations to Mitchell Jones who has been selected to participate in the QUT Vice Chancellor Science Technology Engineering Mathematics Camp in the September holidays. This is a great achievement by Mitchell who competed for a place against high quality candidates from across the state. This will be a wonderful opportunity for Mitchell to expand his passion for learning in these areas.

The Year 3 to 7 students enjoyed their athletics carnival this week and Mr Druery has written some important reflections about what participation in sport and other broader activities can grow in young people with the right focus. We thank our PE department, very capably led by Mr Darren Hooper for the successful staging of the carnival and congratulate all those students who gave of their best.

We wish our Year 10 students and staff all the best as they embark on their two week outdoor education experience. Such experiences provide unique opportunities for growth and we thank Dr Peter McMahon for his leadership and organisation and Mr Damien Evans, Mrs Colleen Devitt, Mrs Wendy Wescombe, Mr Josh Danzey, Mr Bill Vaile and Mrs Rowena Marshall for their leadership.

The article on Time by our Executive Director, Mrs Sue Kloeden, prompts us to reflect on what is at the heart of our lives. As implied, with God at our centre the rest flows. May the Holy Spirit renew and refresh us to know God at our centre.

Dr Bronwyn Dolling, Principal

Trespass, Transgress, Rebellion

The Bible talks about human wrong doing in three ways.

First there is trespassing. This is generally the kind of wrongdoing where I wander to places where I shouldn't go. Sometimes this is intentional, sometimes not. An example of this is when people neglect to honour their parents because they are busy with life elsewhere although the commandment says "Honour your father and mother."

Secondly, the Bible speaks of transgression. This is where we know what the Lord God has spoken but we look the other way and do what we want to do anyway. An example of this is where the commandment tells us not to steal but we take something that is not ours but justify taking it for some other reason, such as "it fell off a truck."

Finally, the Bible speaks of a rebellious lawlessness of the human heart which knows what God says but purposely chooses to do the opposite. An example of this is where we deliberately hurt someone, although we know the commandment "You shall not kill" guides us to a way of life that helps the neighbour.

These three ways of wrong-doing are known as sin. What is more important than these three descriptions, is God's plan is to forgive sin. God forgives trespassing. God forgives transgression. God forgives rebellion. God so loved the world that He gave His only Son . . . for the forgiveness of sin.

Year 10 Camp

Next Monday, 16th June the Year 10 students and some staff will depart for camp in northern New South Wales. Students will work in groups with an instructor and the staff to experience a number of activities, which may include mountain bike riding, canoeing, hiking and group initiatives.

I wish all of the staff and students attending a safe and enjoyable camp experience. I am sure this experience will be an unforgettable two weeks, whereby students will learn more about themselves and about their peers.

Senior College Exams

Thank you to senior students for the way in which they have approached their exams and conducted themselves. Year 12 students will have QCS practice next Tuesday and Wednesday. The remaining weeks of the school term will see Year 11 and 12 students receive feedback regarding their assessment (an opportunity to reflect and consolidate learning) and new academic work started.

Senior students should take the opportunity to reflect on their learning and efforts so far. Please note: an early holiday break will require students to take the responsibility to acquire missed work. This is an unhelpful cycle for a Senior College student. Students are encouraged to stay focused and have a restful break when the school holidays begin at the end of Week 10.

Student Handbook Correction

Next Friday, 20th June is a normal Friday school day (please disregards the misprint in the Middle/Senior College Student Handbook).

Recently a senior school student reminded me of a lesson she participated in when in Year 5. The lesson discussed what it requires for us to be self-confident. The analogy used in the lesson was that self-confidence is like a three legged stool. Self-confident people develop skills, respect others and themselves and act responsibly. Without one or more of these elements, like a three legged stool, self-confidence and personal balance are hard to maintain.

Encourage your children to develop skills and respect themselves by applauding their involvement, effort and application in a variety of sports and cultural and artistic endeavours (music, dance, acting, painting). Help your children to respect themselves and others and to act responsibly through example and by providing opportunities for them to display such attributes. Encourage them to complete chores, admit mistakes, and be dependable and to accept and appreciate difference and the ability of others.

Congratulations to all the students who attended, competed and cheered for their peers at the carnival. Such behaviours are as I have suggested above, an important element in developing confident young people. Thanks also to the many parents who attended the carnival as spectators and officials. Your support is very much appreciated and valued. To all staff, thanks for your support of the carnival and particularly to Mr Hooper for organising the event.

From the Head of Staff and Students P-5

Yesterday, the Year 3 - 7 Athletics Carnival was held at the University of the Sunshine Coast. Success at such an event can be observed in many forms. Students broke records and placed in races exemplifying high standards of performance and excellence. Many others displayed high levels of effort, trying their hardest and completing personal bests. Community success was evidenced as students cheered home stragglers in long distance races.

Often, as adults, we tend to focus on success and achievement as being evidenced purely by winning or coming first. Unfortunately, many of us never experience the exhilaration of coming first. For our children's sake, we need to appreciate their effort, persistence and endeavour rather than simply focusing on winning. Interestingly many junior "winners" struggle as they mature due to their reliance on natural ability rather than on effort, persistence and application.

As parents, help your children to be self-confident by recognising in them effort, persistence and application (not only winning), encourage them to support others and to feel good about themselves.

Food for Thought

Empathic Parenting

To maintain a close bond with our children, it is essential to focus on being lovingly responsive in our interactions towards them. To relate well with them, we need to sense what they are feeling, help them put their thoughts and feelings into words and anticipate their reactions as well as their needs. We need to listen, listen to help them to feel understood and accept them for the unique individuals they are. We must keep our own emotional world separate from theirs. We have to be flexible and willing to adjust our language, thoughts, actions and to admit to our mistakes. We need to be able to step back and reflect on the events of the day, acknowledge the ways in which we offer our children unconditional support and love, and consider ways we might be able to maintain connection with greater ease. Our children rely on our ability to connect, and to re-connect, with them. They instinctively know that their coping abilities, and even their survival, depend on a strong connection with us.

Junior Science Fair and Expo

This week, students from Prep - Year 6 have submitted their project ideas to their teachers for the Junior College's first ever Science Fair and Expo.

The theme of this year's Science Fair and Expo is "Food for the Future" and we are excited to promote sustainability to our students and within our community.

The Science Committee has been thrilled by the entries they have received thus far and are very excited to see them come to fruition. Individual classrooms are conducting experiments and testing theories for their own whole class displays. See the attached from 3P's investigation.

At this stage we would love to encourage more students to engage in the iMovie competition. All that is needed to enter is an idea to film a 60 second iMovie showing your experiment or a simple investigation and access to an iPad.

We have iPads at school that could be used and we can run iMovie workshops for interested students.

Project submission forms are open until Friday, 13th June so collect a form from your classroom teacher or Mrs Pollard in F2.

Mrs Lu Pollard, Year 3 Teacher

Friends of Pacific

Connecting College and Community

OCEANFest 2014 Business Partnership Opportunities

To celebrate all that Pacific cherishes, Friends of Pacific (FOP), our parent body, is once again hosting the twilight OCEANFest 2014 on Friday, 15th August from 3.15pm - 8.30pm. With a focus on providing something for all ages, the celebration will include an East meets West flavours bar with a licenced area, and fireworks, along with even more rides, stalls and live entertainment than last year!

This fun-filled event attracts thousands of visitors from across the college community and the local Sunshine Coast area. All profits raised from the festival are returned directly back into providing the college community with valuable academic, sporting and cultural resources. This year, FOP is hoping to raise funds to outfit the Pacific auditorium with a large scale, multi-purpose digital screen which has the technology to showcase projects, plays and performances.

As FOP and Pacific are interested in continuing and developing new, long term business relationships within the community, various festival sponsorship partnership opportunities are now open. Outlined in the attached information (Sponsors Package Table flyer) are various promotional opportunity packages that may suit your business. And, the best part, that particular weekend, the Sunny Coast will receive a massive influx of visitors from across the globe due to the running of Tough Mudder. Partnering with us in advertising and signage can result in a huge increase in your business name reaching a captive market.

Don't miss this opportunity to be part of a great community event. If you feel that your business would like to be part of this unique event and you would like further information, please call Pam Southern on 0438 543 800 or email southern48@bigpond.com.

Business Directory

Friends of Pacific has started work on the Business Directory for the college website and later for an electronic format.

Please email expressions of interest to fop@pacfluth.qld.edu.au.

The primary focus of establishing the directory is so that the college community of families may more easily support other families through business.

The directory will be open to families of the college for a nominal annual charge that will assist Friends of Pacific fundraising.

SECONDARY SPORT

Year 8-12 Athletics

The Secondary Athletics Carnival will be held on the first Friday back next term (18th July) at the University of the Sunshine Coast athletics track. Students have nominated for track events in the 100m, 200m and 400m for A, B and C divisions. All students are asked to check the nominations (which are up on Schoology and on the sports noticeboard) to make sure that no one has missed out. Any problems must be sorted out before the end of the term.

In the first week back, any athlete who wishes to make the school team for 1500m, javelin and triple jump will need to attend these events at lunch times (1500m on Wednesday lunch, javelin and triple jump on Thursday). The 1500m and javelin events are also for age champion points, whereas the triple jump will only be for those who want to represent the school.

Parents who are attending should be aware that the university has paid parking and all parents will be required to pay upon entry. Any parents who would like to help in an official capacity on the day are asked to please let Mr Hauser know as soon as possible.

District Representatives

Well done to Sophie Larsen, Georgia Woods, Jake Hynes, Jacob Hume and Daniel Bounty who represented the district at the Regional Cross Country Championships last week at Elizabeth Daniels Park. ## Year 3 First Sports Carnival

The Year 3 students had their first sport carnival yesterday. It began as a beautiful sunny day and ended with a chilling wind that uplifted tents and sent hats flying.

The Year 3 students were so super excited and said that the highlights were winning ribbons, doing events such as long jump and high jump and getting to cheer on their friends. Some of the students had great suggestions on how to include some fun events and all reflected that they were nervous at the start and exhausted at the end. Overall they had a wonderful day.

Thank you to Mr Hooper, the HPE crew and the parents for helping the Year 3 students along with their Year 4, 5, 6 and 7 peers have such a great day filled with so many highlights.

SCISSA

This week, the final games for this semester's SCISSA competition were completed against St Andrews. There will not be any Monday afternoon training now until SCISSA resumes in Term 3. A range of new SCISSA sports will be offered to students next term. Kayakers will be the only students who will remain in the same sport. They will continue training in preparation for the upcoming marathon and sprint championships which take place next semester.

Student Success

Congratulations to the following junior sports stars who have experienced success recently.

Jack Miller, Cameron Lane and Jason Wulff who competed for the Sunshine Coast team in the Churches Soccer state championships. Their team won four out of five games and finished as runners up.

U11 Sunshine Coast South

Elijah Modlin and Patrick Swindles were selected to represent U11 Sunshine Coast South. The team played several very close matches over the weekend and finished in fourth place, but only two wins behind second place. They deserve extra credit as the only team who were able to win a game against the Premiers, U11 North.

U12 Sunshine Coast South

Congratulations also to Brock Birch who was selected for the U12 Sunshine Coast South representative side but unfortunately could not play on the weekend due to illness. The team did not lose a game over the weekend and their three wins and two draws allowed them to finish as Runners Up, only two points behind the Premiers, South East.

U13 Sunshine Coast South

Finally, congratulations to Ethan Clark and Lawson Edward who were selected for the U13 Sunshine Coast South representative side. U13 Sunshine Coast South had three close wins, no losses and 1 draw, which earned the team a well-deserved premiership trophy for 2014.

Upcoming Home Games

After this weekend, games for Round 12 (21st June) and Round 13 (28th June) will be home games for Pacific Soccer. We would like to thank the many families from our teams who have previously helped out in the canteen this year and have helped to make our home games a success for our players, our spectators, our club and the school.

We only have four home games remaining this season, so if each family could please help your team with the last few canteen rosters, the work load can be shared more evenly and will ease the burden on our regular hard-working volunteers in the canteen.
