Small Acts Make a Big Difference

On Wednesday after chapel, I was about to pick up my chair to place it on the stack when a young man quietly offered to take it for me. He picked it up without another word and had me smiling. This small act, made a difference.

Small acts of kindness add up to big ripples of change. Through small acts, we can change the lives of people. Looking out for the needs of others and then doing small things to meet their needs spreads goodwill and optimism. Kindness becomes contagious. God's great commandment of loving one another is about reaching out and meeting needs. Doing so without expectation of recognition or reward is a great gift. Great communities have it in abundance.

Principal's Log

We congratulate both of our Year 8 teams who performed well at the recent QAMT Maths Challenge. We particularly congratulate the team of Ji Flynn, Paige Layfield and Olivia McCluskey who won the competition and now go on to compete in the next round. Students have also performed well in the Maths Challenge with Olivia McClusky and Bailey Hockham being invited to participate in the Australian Intermediate Mathematics Olympiad which is open to only 100 students across Australia. We congratulate these students and thank Mrs Jasmin Steven for the preparation of the Year 8 teams and Mrs Leisa Ilott, Mr Andrew Block, Miss Wendy Groves and senior students Carl Jonsson and Josh Williams for their support of the students in the Mathematics Challenge.

Staff were glowing in their praise of the way in which the Year 7 students participated in the activities as part of the Canberra trip over the past week. They were impressed with the young people's engagement, quality of thinking and interaction with others as they visited the War Memorial, Art Gallery, Old Parliament House and Questacon. Well done to the students and thank you to the staff of Mr Damien Evans, Mr Andrew Block, Mrs Leah Croke, Dr Peter McMahon, Mrs Rowena Marshall, Miss Bronte McMahon and Dr Maggie Holmes for their leadership of the camp.

The final phase of preparations for the OCEANFest is underway. All families received raffle tickets last week. Ride passes are ready to go on sale and communication around the organisation of Middle and Senior College food stalls will

"Called" - Other Than on the Phone

"Pastor Smith has been called to the local Lutheran parish." A number of people have heard this "news". The language of being "called" does not refer to a phone call, nor does it mean that someone has "yelled out" a message.

When someone says that a Lutheran pastor has been "called", they are referring to the official invitation from a Lutheran Church or Lutheran organisation that is extended to a Lutheran pastor. This is an invitation that asks him to serve in a new place.

At the end of April this year, because of illness, Pastor Rick Zweck finished his work as the parish pastor of the Caloundra Lutheran Parish: St Mark's. This parish involves two churches. One meets at Pacific on Sundays and one meets in Caloundra. Since April, the people of the St Mark's parish have been going through the process of seeking a new pastor. Lutheran pastors do not "apply" for positions. The people of the parish do the seeking and they work with the local bishop. This process ends in a "democratic" call meeting where the people meet and vote for the pastor that they would like to "call" to work in their parish.

Last Saturday, 27th July, the Lutheran parish called me, Pastor Paul Smith. This means that they have formally issued a request, asking me to pray and consider whether or not God is leading me to leave Pacific Lutheran College and take up new work as the local Lutheran parish pastor. According to the regulations of the Lutheran Church of Australia, I have four weeks to decide whether I stay at Pacific, or move from the college to the Parish. In the Lutheran Church of Australia, the decision rests solely on the pastor who is "called". No-one decides for him.

So, this means the important task is to pray. As I pray for God to guide me, I invite you the people of Pacific, to also pray for me and our school, as I make this decision.

Pastor Paul Smith

From the Director of Students

Chatting with parents at the recent parent teacher evening, I was reminded of the community approach needed to develop a self-managing student. Students, teachers and parents all have key roles to play.

One key area for young people to manage is examination skills. Parents can help their students by:

- Being aware of dates, expectations and assisting with long term planning.
- Have a planner on the fridge of school assessment dates including the exam period.
- Discuss issues and planning with your student.
- Encourage planned revision as part of the homework schedule.
- Appreciate that exams are only one means where a student may display knowledge and subject skills.
- Encourage your child to relax before exams.

Homework can be an area where parents and children may clash. Again this requires a community approach and parents can play their part by:

- Providing an effective homework environment.
- Considering technology free bedrooms or no use of technology in the bedrooms at specific times.
- Limit distractions.
- Require your child to take responsibility for completion of homework.

Finally, encouraging children to read is critical for their overall educational development. Parents can help by modelling good reading habits and creating daily quiet reading times.

Recently I was at a meeting discussing the use of tweeting in education. I had always thought of it as nothing more than a window into the lives of celebrities. Entertainment is certainly a big part of the tweet; however, students can use it for very positive educational purposes. They can make new connections that build community, they can strengthen existing relationships, take action, create change and, most importantly, seek relevant information and opinions on topics.

Mr Brendan Delaney, Director of Students

From the Head of Staff and Students P-5

This term, the You Can Do It program studied by the students is focused on developing Persistence. At Monday's assembly, I spoke to the children about the meaning of persistence and its close linkage with success.

Success, in an educational context, is a little like climbing a mountain. We sit at home in our comfortable lounge chairs applauding the news that somewhere in the world some intrepid adventurers have summited a peak. For those watching from outside the expedition, making the summit is what represents success. Not unlike a student exiting Year 12 with a high OP score. For those directly involved in the climb, success is not only measured in the final ascent but in increments starting with the establishment of a base camp and the carrying of gear and supplies up the mountain to higher altitude camps. In such an adventure, not everything always goes to plan; problems occur and illness or injury can befall the climbers. Success for the mountaineers is often measured in the small achievements that together make up the ultimate success of reaching the summit.

Success in an educational context like climbing a mountain is related to Working Tough, Giving Effort and developing an "I can do it" attitude. Without these attributes, the level of success achieved is individually limited. As parents, it is important to focus on the incremental achievements our children attain as they journey towards the summit of Year 12 and leaving school, considering also that like climbing a mountain not everything will happen perfectly. Problems and obstacles will occasionally appear making progress difficult.

Children need to understand from an early age that success breeds success. An under-achieving child is likely to be discouraged. At school and at home, a child needs opportunities to be successful and to receive acknowledgment. Success leads to a child thinking "If I can do that, I can achieve this".

Fundamental to instilling a successful attitude in children is positive adult-child communication. Here is what research says that successful children say about their parents:

- I have a parent who talks with me about my feelings and coping with stress.
- I have a parent who spends time talking with me about how to make friends and solve problems.
- I have a "say" at home about the way we do things.
- There are interesting things to do at home with family.

- I have a parent who asks questions about what I am learning.
- I have a parent who talks with me about being respectful, honest, caring, and responsible and a good citizen.
- I have a parent who discusses the importance of confidence, persistence and organisation in doing schoolwork. I have a parent who discusses with me what is acceptable behaviour and what happens if I behave badly.
- I have a parent who shows he/she is interested in what I am studying.
- I have a parent who makes time for me and listens.
- There are things at home I have responsibility for.
- At home, I feel accepted for who I am.
- I have a parent who discusses the importance of doing my best in schoolwork.
- I have a parent who praises me when I have done a good job in schoolwork or acted responsibly.

Being a parent is possibly one of the most joyful, rewarding yet challenging experiences of life. Every parent wants their child to be successful. The statements above give a good basis for what we as parents can do to help our children achieve success. As mountaineers tell us, ultimate success comes from the incremental successes we achieve on the climb. How we recognise, accept and reward these achievements underpin how successful we are as individuals.

Walk to School Friday

Unfortunately last Friday's walk to school day was affected by wet weather. The next walk to school day will be on Friday, 9th August. If students live too faraway from the college to walk or ride to school, they can meet at Oakdale Park, which is about 800m from the college. The park, which is just off Creekside Boulevard in Oakdale Circuit, is a convenient location for parents to park and walk to school with their children.

Staff will be in attendance at the park from 7.45am and depart from the park at 8.00am to walk to school.

If you would like to share some time with your children, develop their fitness and de-congest the car park, please join us on Friday, 9th August.

Communication with Staff

Often parents needs to communicate information to their child's teachers regarding changes of routine (such as how and with whom a child is travelling home, attendance at appointments or attendance at After School Hours Care) and exemption from participation in sport, specialist lessons or activities due to injury or illness.

Each morning, parents verbally advise teachers of such changes.

To avoid confusion and to ensure students are where they are meant to be particularly at the end of the day, I would ask that parents put all of these changes in writing. There are a number of ways parents can communicate with staff.

All teachers can be contacted by e-mail. Teachers in Prep - Year 2 classes can also be contacted through communication books which parents can write in informing teachers of changes to routines. Thirdly, a short note can be sent with students advising teachers of changes in routines or of their inability to participate in activities.

I appreciate your support in assisting teachers in ensuring the well-being of all students in regard to their travel arrangements, attendance at appointments and their appropriate levels of involvement in sport, specialist lessons or activities.

Mr David Druery, Head of Staff and Students P-5

My Feelings About Paper Tiger

On Monday we watched a movie called Paper Tiger. It was about a company called April who are chopping down heaps of forests in Sumatra and turning them into paper.

They are doing this because they make lots of money and other countries (like Australia) are buying this paper because it is cheap.

This is causing animals to die or decrease in numbers because their natural habitats are being destroyed. Some animals are well on the way to becoming extinct, such as the Sumatran tiger that only has 400 left in the wild. I am angry because they are destroying natural, pristine forests - once they are gone, they are gone forever.

The farmers in Sumatra are also getting their land taken by April. The Sumatran people do not get a say in anything about their lands.

SO MAKE SURE YOU DON'T WASTE PAPER!!!

By Jye Gallagher

Paper Tiger

On Monday we watched a movie called Paper Tiger about the forests and tigers being destroyed and taken from the country of Sumatra.

As I was watching, I was continuously thinking to myself 'What is this world coming to? I can't imagine what our planet is going to turn into.'

I was angry at those people but at the same time, the poorer people are doing it to feed families. I felt like going there to do something about it. I wasn't happy! I am inspired to do something about it.

Visiting Author: Peter Carnavas

Last week, the first of our visiting authors, Peter Carnavas, came to speak to the Prep to Year 4 classes. Peter has written and illustrated many picture books, including The Children who Loved Books, and one novel, My Totally Awesome Story. As well as talking about being a writer and where ideas come from, Peter got all the students drawing cartoons. Two further authors will be visiting the older students in the coming weeks as part of the lead up to Book Week.

PLC Blake Prize 2014

Calling all artists to participate in this year's PLC Blake Prize.

Following the success of last years' inaugural, PLC Blake Prize is happening again. The original Blake Prize is a prestigious Australian art competition, where artists reflect on Christian and spiritual scriptures and create amazing pieces of work. The Blake Prize has been a feature on Australia's cultural calendar since 1951.

Students from Kindy through to Year 12 showing artistic flare and deep understanding of the Christian tradition, are invited to enter their own piece of art in this year's PLC Blake Prize. Students may use any medium to create their artwork from photography to print, sculpture to sketches and even film. In addition to this, students are to explain the message behind their artwork in an artist's statement. Details regarding the particulars of this year's PLC Blake Prize have been distributed to classes and Pastoral Care Groups this week. Students are encouraged to see Mrs McMahon (Head of the Art Department) or Miss McMillan (Head of Christian Studies) should they have further questions.

The wider Pacific community is invited to view the finalists and the winners will be announced at the Art Exhibition in Term 4.

We look forward to seeing the wonderful talent the students of Pacific have to show.

Mrs Denise McMahon (Head of Art) and Miss Michelle McMillan (Head of Christian Studies)

Food for Thought

I See Beauty in Everything

What makes you feel inspired? When you are not at peace with yourself, it is difficult to relate to anyone around you. Have patience with yourself. Every day, keep opening your perception to see the beauty in everyone and all things around you.

Friends of Pacific

Thank you to all those who assisted in the BBQ at the athletics carnival on Monday. It was greatly appreciated.

On behalf of Pacific Together, we would like to place a call out to anyone who can make an extra meal or bake some snack items. We now have a freezer (located in Food Tech) where we can store meals in readiness for those in need. We currently have families who would benefit from a helping hand. Thank you.

Want to help with OCEANFest?

Meeting every Tuesday morning, 8.30am in the library.

The OCEANFest is now only two weeks away and we are now focusing on all the final details. If there is anyone that can assist in general set up on Friday, 16th August during the day, will you please email fop@pacluth.qld.edu.au or contact Melissa Pollack 0417 677034 or Tracey Hindmarsh 0412 722 622.

There is lots of information being posted on the Pacific Facebook page regarding the OCEANFest. This page will keep you in the loop about all the great food, entertainment and of course, fabulous prizes to be won. To keep up to date with the latest in what is happening, find the link here <https://www.facebook.com/PacificLutheran> and "like"! You can even invite your friends.

Maths Moment

Year 8 QAMT Maths Quiz

We did it again! Our Year 8 teams competed this week at Siena Catholic College against 11 other teams and, with their clever estimation skills, speed mental Maths under pressure and excellent problem solving skills, our teams placed very well. One team came first and must now compete in a few weeks in Round 2, and the other team came a respectable seventh place. It was an enjoyable day, pitting maths-intelligence against other like-minded students, and a wonderful experience for all who participated. Congratulations to both teams and now good luck for the next round to Team 1.

Team 1: Ji Flynn, Paige Layfield and Olivia McCluskey.

Team 2: Imogen Joppich, Isabelle Dinu and Darcy Campbell.

Maths Challenge Results

Congratulations to all students who participated and submitted their solutions to the Maths Challenge early in Term 2. The problems were challenging, yet allowed students who enjoy problem solving to achieve and have a feeling of success and enjoyment for their commitment, as most of this work was completed in their own time. All students receive a certificate and participation certificates will be handed out in class this week by their Maths teacher.

Year 6 Proficiency Award (which is only awarded in the Primary section and is just below a Credit):

Kezia Smith, Oscar Pollack, Jackson Laverick and Georgia Harle

Credit: (top 50%)

Year 8 Alexandra Whitmore

Year 9 Jack Gretton and Jack Bange

Year 10 Lachlan McKay

High Distinction: (top 10%)

Year 8 Olivia McCluskey

Year 9 Bailey Hockam

(these two students have been invited by the competitors to now compete in the Australian Intermediate Mathematical Olympiad, which is only open by invitation to 100 students in Australia).

Congratulations to you all.

Also thank you to the mentors for each year level:

Mrs Ilott - Year 6

Mr Block - Year 7

Mrs Steven and Carl Jonsson - Year 8

Miss Groves and Josh Williams - Years 9 and 10

Maths Competitions

There are many opportunities for keen, mathematically-minded students to participate in.

Australian Mathematics Competition:

Students who were nominated will have sat this competition this week. Well done and we look forward to receiving your results later in the term.

ICAS Mathematics Competition:

All students from Years 3 to 9 as well as Year 10, 11 and 12 Maths B students participate in the ICAS Maths competition. The date for the ICAS Maths will be during their Maths lesson prior to Tuesday, 13th August.

Sunshine Coast Mathematics Tournament:

Pacific will be entering a team of five students for each Year 6 - 12. More details for this to come.

Maths Tutoring

The college wants to support students academically and again have tutorials for students in Years 7 to 12 who would like extra assistance or clarification of concepts in Mathematics. These tutorials are on Thursday afternoons from 3.30pm to 4.30pm in room L14 and are supported by Mathematics teachers on a rostered system. Students are welcome to come along for a quiet place to complete Maths classwork, homework or ask for assistance. The expectation is that they work quietly and that they remain within the room until 4.30pm or picked up earlier by a parent. The section in the Student Handbook on page 178 is to be filled in if you would like your child to attend.

If you have any queries about any of the above, please contact me at the college or email jsteven@pacluth.qld.edu.au

JUNIOR SPORT

Year 4 - 6 SCISSA Sport

The Semester 2 SCISSA season has almost begun. Students have been involved in selection trials for their sports. Please note that not all students can make it into their first preference as we need to fill all sports first. Therefore, parents are asked to please not purchase extra equipment (specialist boots etc) until all teams have been finalised. Compulsory after school training begins on Monday, 12th August (Week 6) for all students. All students are required to attend these training sessions.

Regional Representatives

Congratulations to Jayden Green who has once again made it into the Sunshine Coast Regional Rugby Union team. Jayden will now represent the Sunshine Coast at the State Championships later in the term. We wish Jayden all the best! Great work, Jayden.

Pacific Soccer Update

Round 15 - 27th July

The clear skies returned last weekend to allow our teams to get back on the field again, and provide wonderful team performances and great entertainment for the spectators.

We only have photos to share from the U8 Sharks game at Immanuel. Thank you to Stacey for your great action shots.

In the competitive teams, the U11 Pacific Tigerheads were defeated by the second place Sienna Lions. However, the Tigerheads deserve enormous credit for the way in which they played, scoring twice against the higher ranked team.

U13 Pacific Seahorses played the top ranked Palmwoods Titans and, although they were defeated, the Seahorses continued their previous great performances, using their great attacking speed to score against the quality Palmwoods side.

U12 Pacific Barracudas and U13 Pacific Marlins had convincing wins against Caloundra White and Immanuel United respectively.

In a high-scoring match between U16/17 Pacific Jets and Caloundra Black, the Jets eventually took the game 6 - 4.

The Jets played again under lights last Tuesday night, in a catch up against Nambour Mountain Lions, and had a convincing 5 - 1 win.

Home Games - Round 17 (10th August) and Round 18 (17th August)

Looking ahead, we have home games coming up next weekend (10th August) and the following weekend as well (17th August).

Could everyone please remember that we do rely on the assistance from our families to allow the canteen to be operated during each home game. Therefore when each manager asks for volunteers for the team's roster, if everyone could help out, it will allow the canteen to function well, without placing all of the burden on just a few helpers.

Baking for Home Games

With home games coming up over the next few weeks, if you are able to assist with baking for the canteen, now is the time to organise your recipes and ingredients. The canteen always appreciates help with some baking, to perhaps prepare some muffins, biscuits, small cakes or treats.

Baking is especially popular with our spectators and players, who enjoy the home-made delicacies. Please contact Mark Christensen if you would like to help, or if you have any queries.

Rooball Carnival - 24th August

A final Rooball Carnival will be held on 24th August, providing a perfect way to end the 2013 season for the U6-U10 teams. The carnival is not compulsory, but the teams must nominate if they wish to participate. Pacific Soccer will be hosting U6 teams at Pacific, as well as Preliminary Final games.

Could the manager of each Rooball team please let us know as soon as possible if your players would like to play in the Rooball Carnival on 24th August.

Finals Series - 24th August to 7th September

On 24th August, the Preliminary Final games between the top four teams in each competitive age group will also occur. Semi-finals will be played on 31st August and the Grand Final on 7th September.

At this stage, the U16/17 Jets are leading their table by six points and will wrap up the minor premiership with a win this weekend. This has been an outstanding result for the team, especially considering the team is made up of U14 and U15 players.

The U13B Marlins are in third place, and U13B Seahorses are in fifth but are only one win away from fourth. U12A Barracudas are in second place, three points behind the leader. U11B Tigerheads have had a good season, their first in the competitive age group, but will miss the finals this year.

End of Season Breakup - 8th September

The 2013 Pacific Soccer breakup will again be held at Pacific Lutheran College on Sunday, 8th September from 1.00pm - 4.00pm.

More details regarding the breakup will be provided in the following weeks.

Pie Drive Results

Thank you to all our families who took advantage of the pie drive and ordered some of the savoury pies and slices from Homestyle Bake. The orders were collected yesterday and will be giving our families a treat over the next few weeks. The pie drive raised $365 for Pacific Soccer, which will help to fund new equipment and resources for the 2014 season.

Congratulations also to Megan Pyke who was the highest seller and therefore also received a few bonuses from Homestyle Bake.

FINAL CHANCE - Recycle Mobiles and Help a Worthy Cause

The program to collect and recycle old mobile phones is concluding soon, and the collection box will remain at Main Admin until Friday, 16th August.

Please support this program to raise money for research into childhood cancer, and help our environment. Remember to remove the SIM card and delete personal information.

Round 16 - 3rd August

This weekend our teams are again playing away games at fields across the Coast.

- U6 Seals, U6 Stingrays, U10 Dolphins, U11 Tigerheads at Mooloolah.
- U6 Swordfish and U7 Eels at Unity College.
- U7 Orcas, U8 Pythons, U8 Taipans, U8 Cobras, U9 Snappers, U12 Barracudas, U13 Marlins at University of the Sunshine Coast.
- U9 Sharks at Range United (Montville).

- U13 Seahorses at Immanuel Lutheran College.
- U16/17 Jets at Mudjimba.

Each manager will have game times, or visit www.SCCSA.org.au or call us for more info.
